

Number that Trumpet	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. A third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.
Something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood. And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.
A great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.
A third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day did NOT shine, and likewise the night.
After this trumpet (# ____) John heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"
John saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the bottomless pit. He opened the bottomless pit and smoke arose like the smoke of a great furnace. The sun and air were darkened. Out of the smoke came locusts. They were given scorpion power.
The locusts could not harm the grass or any green thing or any tree but ONLY those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. They were NOT given authority to kill them but to torment them 5 months.
With the torment of the locusts (with scorpion power), men would seek death and not find it; they would desire to die and death would flee from them.
The king over the locusts was the angel of the bottomless pit whose Hebrew name was Abaddon. His Greek name was Apollyon.
The trumpet was also "woe one"
John heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God. "Release the 4 angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."
The 4 angels had been prepared for the hour, day, month, and year. They were released to kill a third of mankind
The number of the army of horsemen was 200,000,000. The riders had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; The horses had heads like the heads of lions. Out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone, which killed a third of mankind. Their power was in their mouth and tails; their tails were like serpents, having heads, and with them, they do harm.
The rest of mankind (woe 2, trumpet ____) who were NOT killed, did not repent of the works of their hands. They worshiped demons and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can't see nor hear nor walk. They also continued murders, sorceries, sexual immorality and thefts.
There were loud voices in heaven saying "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!" The 24 elders fell on their faces and worshiped God. The temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple. And there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail.
