

Study Questions Leviticus 25

1. Where did the LORD speak to Moses?
2. How many years were the children of Israel to sow their fields?
3. How many years were the children of Israel to prune their vineyards?
4. The seventh year was a Sabbath of solemn _____ for the land.
5. Were they to gather the grapes of their untended vine?
6. The Sabbath produce of the land would be food for:
 - a. You, your male and _____ servants
 - b. Your hired man and the _____
 - c. Your livestock and the _____
7. Seven times seven Sabbaths of years shall be _____ years.
8. Then they shall cause the _____ of the Jubilee to sound on the _____ day of the seventh month.
9. This was also the Day of _____
10. They were to consecrate the _____ year and proclaim _____ throughout all the land.
11. In the year of Jubilee, each was to return to his _____ and to his _____.
12. The 50th year - they were not to sow nor reap, nor gather the _____.
13. According to the multitude of years you shall increase its _____
14. According to the fewer number of years you shall diminish its _____
15. They were not to _____ one another, but they were to _____ God.
16. They were to observe God's statutes, keep His judgments, and perform them; and they would dwell in the land in _____
17. God would command blessings on them in the _____ year to bring forth produce enough for _____ years.
18. They would sow in the _____ year and eat _____ produce until the ninth year.
19. Was the land to be sold permanently?
20. Could a relative redeem land for his brother who became poor?
21. Could a man redeem land he had previously sold if he was later able to redeem it?
22. Even if a person couldn't redeem his land, would it be released and returned to his possession in the Year of Jubilee?
23. A house in a walled city that was sold had to be redeemed in the space of a _____

- 24.If not redeemed in the space of a full year, it would belong _____ to him who bought it.
- 25.Houses of villages which have no wall are counted as _____ of the country.
- 26.The Levites may redeem at _____ time houses in the cities of their possession.
- 27.Could the field of the common-land of the cities of the Levities be sold?
- 28.Were they to help their brethren who became poor?
- 29.Were they to take usury or interest from their brother who fell into poverty?
- 30.A brother who sold himself should not be compelled to serve as a
31. A brother who sold himself would be as a _____ and a sojourner.
- 32.Were they to rule over a brother with rigor?
- 33.Could they have slaves, male and female, from the nations around them?
- 34.If a brother sold himself to a sojourner or stranger who became rich, could he be redeemed by brother, uncle, or anyone who is near kin to him?
- 35.If a brother who sold himself had not been redeemed, would he be released in the Year of Jubilee?